

Tune-up with Others

Help your child practice language skills and understand ideas during everyday life.

When visiting family, greet them and share new information together, ask questions, and listen and respond. At the doctor's office, talk together about the people, places, and things to expect. Assist your child in asking others when he wants to know more.

At the library, have your child tell about her interests or ask where to find information she is seeking.

The research reported here is funded by a grant to the National Center on Improving Literacy from the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education, in partnership with the Office of Special Education Programs (Award #: 5283D160003). The opinions expressed are those of the authors and do not represent views or policies of OESE, OSEP, or the U.S. Department of Education. You should not assume endorsement by the Federal government. © National Center on Improving Literacy. https://improvingliteracy.org/litviter.com/NCLIteracy/facebook.com/improvingliteracy