

Inspect the Manual Screening & Assessment

For Families

You and the school can discuss key assessment tools, rubrics, grading criteria, or strategies to determine together if your child is successful in learning literacy content, skills, or completing an assignment.

Questions to ask your child's school

What screening practices for language and literacy does the school use and when?

What information does the school collect on my child's language and literacy progress?

How is the information used to make decisions about my child's language and literacy needs?

How are you monitoring my child's language and literacy progress?

How are children with reading difficulties identified?

National Center on Improving Literacy

The research reported here is funded by a grant to the National Center on Improving Literacy from the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education, in partnership with the Office of Special Education Programs (Award #: S283D160003). The opinions or policies expressed are those of the authors and do not represent views of OESE, OSEP, or the U.S. Department of Education. You should not assume endorsement by the Federal government. Copyright © National Center on Improving Literacy.