

Schedule Regular Maintenance

For Families

Regular and positive communication and interaction between you and the school make partnering to support your child's literacy learning possible.

Questions to ask your child's school

What are your language and literacy goals for my child and family?

How is my child doing in language and literacy development?

How can I share information about my child's language and literacy learning?

How can I partner with you to develop language and literacy goals for children?

How can I support my child's language and literacy goals?

What does my child need to know and be able to do?
