

Form a Pit Crew

For Families

Addressing needs together promotes faster development and catches trouble spots early. Find a solution that you and the school can both support.

Questions to ask your child's school

How is my child's language and literacy learning being supported in this system of literacy services and support?

What types of support are offered to my child if he or she is struggling to read or write?

What accommodations does the school provide to help my child read or write?

What might happen next with instruction and support if my child continues to struggle?
